Everbright Securities International continues to win the Best “Securities Investment Service” Award by Sing Tao Daily

Hong Kong, February 2, 2024 – China Everbright Securities International Company Limited (“Everbright Securities International”, “EBSI” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company has been awarded the Best “Securities Investment Service” Award at the Sing Tao Service Awards 2023 organized by Sing Tao Daily. With a 55-year history as a financial institution in Hong Kong, Everbright Securities International initially established its core securities business and gradually expanded to offer comprehensive wealth management services, which have garnered high recognition from its clients. EBSI has won this award for 13 consecutive years since 2011, further attesting the Company’s leading position in the industry.

Keeping abreast of the times, EBSI’s wealth management product platform offers clients a wide variety of products. In 2023, the Company’s wealth management products (including bonds, mutual funds, insurance, MPF and structured products) accounted for 50% of its revenue. This underscores the Company’s continuous breakthrough in the wealth management sector and its ability to identify products with high capital preservation features, helping clients remain resilient in the face of market volatility in 2023. The number of “Asset Power” accounts, tailored for high-net-worth (“HNW”) clients, also grew steadily with an 18% increase YOY. Among them, the number of clients with “higher asset deposit and active trading” grew by 16%, which reflects clients’ high degree of trust in the Company and that they utilize EBSI’s insightful and accurate analysis to conduct effective investments.

“EBSI Wealth”, the Company’s wealth management brand, organized a series of bespoke events for HNW clients in 2023, including events on family’s wealth management, market outlook analysis client events, and investment outlook seminars. In addition, the Company’s service brand “EBSI Private” established a partnership with an overseas bank’s asset management division and has tapped into the family office market in the Greater Bay Area.

Everbright Securities International will continue to uphold its “Client Focus” principle, continuously enhancing the overall client experience, and assisting clients in achieving their investment goals through high-quality and comprehensive financial services as the Company strives to become an influential first-class wealth management brand.
