Everbright Securities International awarded again
The Asset's "Best Brokerage (Hong Kong)"

Hong Kong, March 22, 2022 – China Everbright Securities International Company Limited (“Everbright Securities International”, “EBSI” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company is awarded “Best Brokerage (Hong Kong)” for the fifth time at the “The Asset Triple A Country Awards 2021” organized by the regional financial magazine The Asset. The Company is recognized for its comprehensive product scope and variety, innovative wealth management product solutions as well as professional and caring customer services.

Building on its over 50 years of heritage, Everbright Securities International has been striving for excellence, and is committed to becoming a leading wealth management institution in the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area (the “GBA”) following its rebranding earlier this year, serving investors at all levels with financial solutions that outshine its peers. Despite the turbulent financial market last year, the Company is recognized by the industry for its distinguished performance:

- The Company’s Everbright Focus Income Fund* was awarded the highest five-star rating in overall and three-year ratings by the authoritative fund rating agency Morningstar last year, being among the top 10% of funds with the best performance;
- To expand its financial services in the GBA, the Company has been enhancing investment and wealth management products and services in Macau. Currently, EBSI provides nearly 1,000 fund products from 14 fund houses in Macau and is set to introduce bond offerings, providing clients in Macau and the GBA more wealth management selections;
- Adhering to its commitment to customer service, EBSI responded timely and flexibly to the pandemic by utilizing financial technology with improved user friendliness to expand service coverage. The Company served clients with seamless online-offline hybrid and online account opening services, complemented with the “AI-Portfolio Investing” platform for clients who prefer autonomous approach to enjoy competitive investment advantages.

The Asset Triple A Country Awards is organized by Asia’s reputed financial magazine The Asset. Well regarded in the industry, the awards are selected stringently by professional investors and financial analysts according to comprehensive judging criteria such as product platform, customer investment management and support services to recognize financial institutions that achieved outstanding results in the previous year.
